

The Woodville South Football Club (WSFC) is seeking applications for its Senior Mens A grade coaching job for season 2021 and beyond.

The WSFC currently play in the AdFL division 4, A & B grade along with our C grade in C4 & a U/18's team. We also have a womens team currently in Div 5.

Ideally we are seeking an experienced A grade coach who has Div 4 equivalent or higher experience or a player/coach who has Div 1 equivalent or higher experience.

The successful applicant will need to posses:

Excellent communication skills

- Mentor and motivate a young playing and coaching group
- Continue to build on the strong relationships between the mens and womens senior sides along with our juniors
- Continue the development of the Football Clubs connection with the greater Woodville South community, including the Woodville South Sports and Social Club and our past players
- Maintain a strong and healthy line of communication with other key stakeholders including the AdFL, umpires and other Football Clubs in the AdFL

Strategy and planning

- Have a clear game plan that can be developed through training drills and communication with the playing and coaching group
- Be agile with game plan and game day planning
- Develop players skill and fitness

Recruiting and list management

- Ability to recruit coaching staff and players
- Be able to work within a budget
- Have a strong understanding of the AdFL's points system

The successful applicant will also need to be willing to work closely with the Football Director and Director of Coaching to help develop the WSFC and achieve the above points.

We are also seeking expressions of interest for:

- B Grade coach
- C Grade coach

If you would like to apply, please email a application outlining your previous football experience, achievements and references to our Football Director, Peter Johnson at peter@adfcl.com.au. Please specify the role you wish to apply for.
