

2014 FIXTURE : STURT

OUR BREAKDOWN

The Double Blues have all 10 of their home games scheduled for Envestra Park, Unley after experimenting with a night home game at Norwood last season. Only 3 of their first 8 games are at home meaning Sturt host 7 of their last 10 clashes including 3 in a row between Rounds 15-17. 4 of the 9 scheduled home games are on a Sunday afternoon.

Marquee Match— Sturt's home opener at Unley is a Saturday Afternoon clash with Adelaide, (Crows AFL plays Sunday in Melbourne). Traditional high drawers Norwood and Port visit in mid-late June.

Other— Due to the Easter weekend with a Thursday night game at Norwood, the Double Blues get a five day break between Rd's 2 and 3 then a 10 day break between Rd's 3-4. Road trips to last year's Grand Finalists (Norwood & North) are out of the way by Round 5.

2014 FIXTURE : WEST

OUR BREAKDOWN

Night Football will reign supreme at Richmond this season. The Bloods first 4 home games at City Mazda Stadium will all be at night with 3 others in June-July. At least 9 of their 18 minor round games will be under lights, tied with Norwood as the most of any club.

Marquee Match— The Bloods host a now traditional Easter Thursday night clash, this time against North. Both games against the Adelaide Crows (Round 6 & 12) will be Friday Night affairs. Norwood & Port both play night games at City Mazda Stadium in June.

Other— 5 of West's first six games are at night. 4 of their first 6 games are at home but West are on the road for 3 of their final 4 games in the minor round.
